ITEMS FROM THE SOUTHEAST
—By a letter from Mr. M. A. Brooks, of Pahrangat Valley, under date of March 10th, to Henry Butterfield, which we are permitted to read, we learn some items of interest in the settlement of the

of our State and of the settlements in the direction of the time of the organization of the county last fall, George Rogers was chosen sheriff, and has been endeavoring to prevent the stealing of stock by the Mormons, who have an itching for "gentile" horses.
A few weeks since Rogers went to the Meadow Valley settlements about thirty miles north of Phelan, about Salt Lake, some miles from Pahranagat, to recover some stolen stock, and it is supposed was murdered by the Mormons of that locality, so celebrated for their need-of blood. A postscript to the letter says four men had come in from Meadow Valley, and that therefore no doubt but that Rogers had been murdered. The wish is expressed that everything possible should be done to get soldiers in there, as there would be half the pay in a short time." They were determined to protect themselves against the Mormons, and a party was fitting out to go against them,

and they threaten vengeance.

A very exciting race, distant mentioned, came off at Meadow Valley a few days before the date of the letter. For the heavy purse of five thousand dollars a side, between a horse called Salt Lake Curley and a horse, name unknown.—R. R. Beville.

London receives about 100,000
gallons of water every day.
It is now proposed to erect works which will supply 180,000,000 to 200,000,000 gallons, and by having purer water save £3,000,000 a year in soap, etc. The new scheme would cost £8,000,000, and be the finest of their kind in the world. Two schemes are proposed, one of which would take the water from the mountain slopes 152 miles distant.

THE SITUATION.

Those who have attended the conference meetings, now held at the Tabernacle in this city, are satisfied that the heads of the Mormon Church are determined to make a last and strenuous effort to regain the entire control of affairs in this city and Territory. To this end the people are counseled to deeds of proscription; the assassination of their "enemies" is countenanced and defended; they are told that the Territory belongs to them; that there is no law outside of the Mormon Church; that in any way binding upon them, and that the Government of the United States has no "rights" in Utah.

The rulers of this people have seen with alarm the growing dissatisfaction among their own people. They have witnessed the increasing power of the Gentile element, especially in this city; and they have apparently resolved upon a bold and sudden coup d'état, to regain their waning prestige. The thing has been very well conceived, and to a certain extent, bears the impress of success. In the Tabernacle, the elders, bishops, and presidents have, of course, had every thing their own way. When they slandered and vilified the Government, the people rejoiced; when they spoke brave words of blood, of shooting men down in the streets, and of the "good times come again," the people applauded; and when one of their chief rulers, with blasphemous denunciations, "came down on" one of the United States Judges, "the people" seemed wild with joy, that one of their masters dared to talk so bravely of a Government official. On the street, the evidence of the determination above alluded to, is scarcely less manifest. It is seen in the sinister looks and swaggering manner of certain hitherto "very humble" "saints." The members of the Provost Guard are openly insulted by men who, a fortnight ago, were striving to pass themselves off as "loyal" citizens; men who are bold or reckless enough to speak disparagingly of the "Lord," are "tapped on the shoulder by one of the 'stars' and informed that 'the less they talk the longer they will live';" merchants are warned that if they subscribe a reward for the apprehension of a murderer, they will lose the trade of the people; citizens who have lived here for years, and whose record is without a blot, are publicly proscribed because they "balled an innocent man out of jail;" United States officials receive threatening letters, and are warned to leave the Territory; that terrible fellow, who is supposed to be the "red" of "that vile sheet the Vedette," is politely notified to "get," and, indeed, there is a general game of "brag" going on, which may mean blood, or may be one grand bluff for the stakes. There is no doubt that there has been reasonable alarm among the ex-Mormons in this city. Until yesterday things looked a little "scary," but we believe that the "Gentile" population have concluded that "two can play at that game," and the prospect is that there won't be much of a "skedaddling" job yet. Since yesterday, we have been studying the Geography of North America, and have come to the conclusion that Utah is in the United States. We are about to telegraph that fact on to Washington, and then, with "our banners on the outer wall," we will stay here until the time comes when an honest man can condemn a dishonorable action, without paying the "attribution of blood" to his majesty—the King of Assassins.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.—A great part of the press and the public men of the United States, north and south, seem now to be regarding this suicidal policy. They seem "wonderful" of discrimination between the advocacy of the right and the politics with dignified decent firmness, and a mutual recommitment in language that cannot fail to arouse and keep in action the worst passions. They do not perceive that if we are ever to be a great and powerful people, our power must be grounded on unity and our unity secured by fraternity. A moment's reflection ought to convince any reasonable man that these desirable results can only be brought about by moderation in speech; yet there are those—by far too many—who can neither hold their tongues nor refrain from the past. There are hundreds of Democratic journals and politicians whose language to-day is as bitter against the Government of the United States as that of the most intense rebel two years ago, and there are by far too many Republicans who imitate the pernicious example. For ourselves, we have no spirit for such a contest. We are not a species of siffle. Give us moderation in speech and mutual forbearance. Let us of the Union be able to cope, calmly and fearlessly, with our arguments fearlessly; but let us be dignified and respectful to a people whom we have fought so much for, and only that they might be retained in the grand brotherhood of the Republic.

THE SOUTHERN BILL.—The Southern Bill, as it came from the House, was yesterday reported by the U. S. Senate. It was a bill to amend the act of March 3, 1857, relating to the removal of the Indians from the State of Kentucky to postpone action, indefinitely. The bill now needs only the signature of the President to become the law of the land, and to secure to all persons born in the United States the rights of citizenship. Indians not taxed, the rights of citizenship. The provisions of the bill are simple, and as they can be secured by a general law, and it is a fitting corollary to the act of Emancipation. —N. Y. Tribune, 10th ed.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION-EDETTE.)
GENERAL NEWS.

Chicago, April 9.—The Chicago Tribune has published a statement from the Probate Judge of Marshall county, that a careful census shows 2180 persons, white and colored, are absolutely helpless from age, sex or infirmity, and families representing 2,000 persons are dependent upon persons able to work but unable to earn a living. Of the residue of the people of Marshall county, not more than five per cent have the means adequate for their wants.

Gov. Oglesby, of Illinois, has issued a proclamation for the observance of the 15th day of April as a day of fasting and prayer, being the anniversary of the death of President Lincoln.

The Wisconsin Senate has Saturday instructed its Committee on Federal Relations to report a resolution requesting Senator Doolittle to resign.

The President, by circular, instructs heads of departments to give preference to discharged soldiers in all clerical appointments or promotions.

Senator Sherman on last Thursday offered a bill, to incorporate a national telegraph company, with power to construct lines over any post routes in the States or Territories, Government to use the lines at such rates as the Postmaster-General may prescribe. Bill referred to a select committee of five.

Since the President's proclamation, the price of office's ration has been reduced from 50 cents to 30 cents.

Albany, April 9.—Littlejohn introduced a bill, in the Assembly incorporating Wm. H. Webb, M. O. Roberts and others as the North American Steamship Company, capital three millions of dollars, to operate with the lines of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and Mediterranean sea.

Nashville, April 8.—The Tennessee Legislature re-assembled to-day with a radical majority of eight members, being four more than a working quorum. The radical caucus voted to reject all "credentials" and admit only those elected as new members, and exclude bolters re-elected on the ground that the latter came back under pledges to bolt again, and are therefore in rebellion against the State Government, exciting questions which will demand immediate attention.

Horace Maynard, when stopping here, said Tennessee would give negro suffrage before Connecticut, and the prospects favor its being done.

New York, April 9.—The Tribune's Washington special says, it is generally expected the President will release Davis and Clay on parole.

Six white men, for instigating negro riot in Alexandria, had been sentenced by a military commission, and when the criminals left Alexandria for the Albany Penitentiary, female sympathizers in a large crowd assembled and cheered them off.

St. Louis, April 9.—The total loss of steamers and cargo by the fire last Friday is about half a million; insured for four hundred thousand.

From California.

San Francisco, April 2.—Sahford C. Gardner, Secretary of the Coosco Island Treasure Company, was convicted of forgery and will be sentenced next Monday.

Geo. Stewart, a salicman with Tubbs & Co., ship chandlers, has been sentenced to six months in the County Jail, for attempting to assist a prisoner to escape.

Four divorces to-day—Mary J. Wolfinger from Peter Wolfinger, for adultery; Catharine Crowley from Daniel Crowley, for habitual intemperance; and Ann Liebenfeldt from Gottlieb Liebenfeldt, for desertion. Application of Charles W. Shattuck for divorce from Sarah Jane Shattuck was denied.

The Centenary of the Methodists was celebrated at the Howard Street M. E. Church yesterday with addresses by all the Methodist clergy.

Forty-nine deaths occurred here last week.

Arrived—the steamer Del Norte, from Victoria, with ninety-six passengers, and ship Good Hope, from New York.

From Idaho.

The following items are from the Statesman of the 31st ult:

Homicide at Idaho City.—A man by the name of McKay shot a man by the name of McKay, last Monday, at Buena Vista Bar, under circumstances that probably make it a deliberate murder. McKay was passing when Dunn commenced shooting with a revolver; until four shots had taken effect, McKay, in the meantime, trying to escape into a cabin. Dunn then took to flight in the hills, but was captured and committed. An old quarrel existed between the parties but no altercation happened at the time of the killing.

MAN LOST.—The stage from the west had considerable difficulty in crossing passengers at the Weber day, before yesterday. As the ferry neared the shore the boat sank and the passengers jumped out—a part of them to the shore and a part into the water. The day by the name of Manuel Ignacio was drowned.

A SURVEYOR near Waynesburg, Pa., lately found a stone by the roadside marked, "Due 2 2 4." Two rods, four feet and six inches from that spot, he found a stone marked "Due 2 2 4." On the ground, filled with silver coin. On the west side of the fifty rods was, "Due west," with the same figures; and the same distance from a second box, like the other, filled with gold coin. When the money was put there, or who did it, is unknown.

New Orleans now has a population larger by 60,000 than ever before. Only veston and other Texas cities are full to overflowing and the same is said of Memphis, Mobile, Montgomery, Atlanta, and all the towns of the Southwest.

CONDENSED REPORT—The enemies of the Mormons—those who might find a short road to hell, by the doctrine illustrated. The persecution and driven from place to place ever since. Other sects and denominations were not so persecuted. The Shakers and Quakers were persecuted, but not so severely as the Mormons. The Government, even the Josephite Mormons lived quietly and respectfully in the States and Territories, and were not persecuted. In fact, nearly all religions known to civilized nations were tolerated, excepting those. The Government seemed to have a particular spite against Brigham Young. The President of the United States would not deign to consult him in relation to the affairs of the Territory; if he had done so, the last war would have been avoided; in fact the best war could be prevented, if the President would ask Brigham's advice. How strange that the rulers of the nation will not learn wisdom! They don't even know that the Capital has got to be moved to this valley—of course they don't; the Lord keeps them in ignorance in order that they may be more consistently damned. Brigham Young could tell them all about it, but they are too proud to ask him.

The rulers that have been sent out here have always been a set of low blackguards, the very scum of the earth, always interfering with what did not concern them. There may have been an exception or two, but the exceptions were good for nothing, harmless old grandfathers who neither opposed the Mormons nor acted with them; men who wished to be left alone and who were of no earthly account to any one but themselves. These men have all gone to hell, and there is yet room for more.

Mormons should be consistent. You pray for the sudden destruction of your enemies, would you ask God to do what you would not do yourselves? Certainly not; then let your faith be shown by your works. God is bound to hold these valleys for the faithful among his people. It is time our enemies understood this, and men that are not entirely blinded by their own lusts cannot fail to see it. There are some men whom God makes blind for His own good purpose.

"Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make blind," is the correct reading of the Bible. We see it illustrated here nearly every day. Men receive warnings upon warnings and refuse to pay any attention to them, and the first thing they know the warnings become true, and then the "saints" are blamed for it. God Almighty makes them blind in order the sooner to encompass their destruction.

Polygamy is religion, therefore all those who practice polygamy are "saints"—and all who do not will be "out-off," both in this world and in the world to come. Polygamy is also very essential to the population of these valleys. It was not so at first, but it would never have revealed it to Joseph Smith. It is true that Adam had but one wife, and that at a time when the world needed populating more than it does now; but Adam was an old fool and easily satisfied. If it had been Brother Heber or Brother Brigham, for instance, (accompanied by a sly wink), don't you think things would have been different? (Cries of "you bet!" and a general chorus of "amen.") Well, Brother Brigham doesn't know how many wives, but in fifty years his descendants will outnumber the present population of Utah; and it is the same—or more so—with Brother Brigham. Don't you see how God is bound to make us a great nation by ourselves?

The Kasson Divorce Case.

(Correspondence of Chicago Evening Journal.)
Des Moines, March 13.
The item which is going about in the papers, and credited to the Cincinnati Commercial, respecting the recent divorce suit against Hon. J. A. Kasson, is true, except that Mrs. Kasson is not the daughter of a member of Congress from Massachusetts, but is a sister of T. Davies Elliott, member of Congress from the New Bedford (Massachusetts) District; and of Rev. Wm. Elliott, an eminent divine of St. Louis. She did not fall in love with him in a hurry; did not elope with him; did not leave him in France; is not a Frenchman; did not teach French in the family, for he never knew a word of French until he visited Paris in connection with our National postal affairs, a few years since. Mrs. Kasson filed her petition on the ground of adultery committed in Washington. Mrs. Kasson appeared in person before the court, and confessed the allegations to be true, whereupon the decree for divorce was granted. The parties have not lived together for more than a year. The defendant, previous to the hearing of the case, gave to the plaintiff eighteen thousand dollars, which, with twenty thousand dollars she has in her private purse, leaves her in comfortable circumstances. Words of abuse at court.

The Kansas City Journal of Commerce.

We learn that the Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific Railroads have the contract for the transportation of some 10,000 troops destined for the Plains, and for the vast amount of supplies and Government freight for Fort Riley and western posts in Colorado and New Mexico. As the transfer of these is to commence about the first of April, the Missouri Pacific Road must necessarily complete its connection with the Union Pacific, in West Kansas, about that time.

BODENBURG & KAHN

June 15-16

In a recent column, we found the advertisement of Messrs. Marden & Folger, 120 Front St., San Francisco, who are engaged in putting up a superior article of Ground Coffee. Our merchants will find them reliable men to deal with.

Mr. George H. Marden, secretary of the English capitalists interested in Minnesota railroads, in a speech at St. Cloud to a Mountain meeting, said that the English capitalists are now considering the propriety of building a railroad from Minnesota to Montana.

Bar "Tropics"—This well-known Star company arrived in our city from the West. Their manager, Mr. Walter Bray, is now engaged in negotiations which will probably result in the acquisition of the company before a Salt Lake audience within a few days. Their almost world-wide reputation will secure them a cordial and substantial welcome from our citizens.

TENNESSEE is showing up great mineral wealth. Near Cleveland is one of the largest copper mines in the world. Iron ore, tin, coal, marble, rock crystals, gypsum, pinks, etc., and various earths abound in the eastern section of the State. Gold has been found near the Georgia line. The whole section of country along the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad exhibits unmistakable evidences of petroleum. A flowing oil well has been struck near Chattanooga.

WHAT WE NEED.—The Nevada Transcript says: "We want more men of industry and enterprise, who are not carried off by every rumor of rich mines at a distance. We want men who are contented to make this State their home, and all such will be richly rewarded in the mines on the farm. This class of citizens are increasing, and this is the secret of our improvement during the past two years. The sooner the restless wanderers who are carried off by every reputed discovery of rich mines are out of the country the better."

THE NEW ROUTE TO SALT LAKE.—San Francisco Call notices the first trial of the experiment whether goods can be shipped to Salt Lake from San Francisco cheaper than they can from St. Louis. On Wednesday last, the schooner William Ireland sailed with the pioneer shipment of assorted merchandise for Colville at the head of navigation on the Colorado River. The credit of this enterprise belongs to Mr. R. G. Sneath, who has been unremitting in his endeavor to arouse the merchants to the importance of this trade. The cargo of the Ireland consists of goods especially suited for that market, including tea, coffee, sugar, rice, etc., etc. It is expected can be laid down in the Salt Lake market at from five to ten cents per pound less than by any other route. She also carries considerable building material, which, in connection with the merchandise, will make a cargo of some two hundred tons.

Another Warning!!

We stop the press to give place to the following. "Now," as the lark said to her young ones, "it is time for us to leave!" We could stand the "bloody hand" and the "skedaddle" of the other warnings, but the following gets us. Just count us out!

Salt Lake City, April 6, 1866.
Mr. Editor Vedette:—If you don't quit abusing Stenhouse and the Mormons, we'll come and marry you. We don't "mean blood," but we won't stand to have Stenhouse maligned; so you look out.
Edw. T. Mormon Women—

We weaken on the turn. Will some one take our place? "27 Mormon women" P-h-e-w!—We apologize. We don't edit the Vedette—Stenhouse is a good fellow—a brave man—and he can look a dog in the face! Besides, he never did borrow a pair of brass knuckles. "27 M.—"O Lord have mercy upon us, miserable sinners!"—Don't shoot this way! We are not the man! 27 wives!—We'll go!

From Montana.

Helena, March 22, 1866.
Dear Friend:—Excitements such as are fostered in all mining camps have flourished the past two weeks beyond former experience. The execution of James Daniels by the "Vigilantes" after he had been reprieved by Governor Meagher, furnished the first. An indignation meeting, supposing in its proportions all other gatherings ever convened here, followed, condemning the act in no very choice terms. The next evening a mass meeting followed, at which strong resolutions were adopted, sustaining President Johnson in his policy of reconstruction, endorsing the Washington speech, etc. At the present writing, however, many have left for Elk Creek, and other new camps, that this place looks nearly deserted. During the winter months a dog fight would call a thousand people to the street. At present, we doubt whether a pitched battle between two "bull boys" would get an audience of over fifty. Stampedes are again reviving amongst the miners. The most recent is to Indian Country, which is the most northwest and extends from Helena. Reports from there are usually conflicting. The gulch is four miles long, but I learn that but one claim upon it has been thoroughly prospected, which is located directly at its confluence with the Missouri. The discoverer claims to have taken out from this claim fifty-three cents to the pound of pure gold.

Reports from Elk Creek, Bear Gulch, and tributaries of these creeks are of the most encouraging character. Thousands are flocking in there, building houses and preparing for the opening of the season. In our last Chance, Griseley and Dry Gulch, it is estimated that enough dirt has been taken out, awaiting first water, to wash one million of dollars in fifteen days.

Waldron, the Walla Walla expressman, arrived here on the 19th, twenty days from Walla Walla, by the Mullen route, traveling over one half the way on snow shoes. He brought twelve hundred letters, weighing thirty pounds, and sufficient provisions to last him to Frisco. He reports the Pen D'Orrille route entirely closed beyond present, and the snow from seven to ten feet on the Bitter Root range. The winter has been very severe upon the "otherside," but hundreds were impatiently awaiting the opening of spring to start for this country. Pack trains were making preparations for an early start with goods.

THE GARDEN SPOT OF AMERICA.—I heard the love of home oddly illustrated in Oregon one night in a country bar. Some well dressed men, in a state of strong drink, were boasting of their respective places of nativity.

"I," said one, "was born in Mississippi, where the sun ever shines and the magnolias bloom all the happy year round."

"And I," said another, "was born in Kentucky—Kentucky, the home of impassioned oratory, the home of Clay, the State of splendid women and gallant men."

"And I," said another, "was born in Virginia, the home of Washington, the birthplace of statesmen, the State of chivalric deeds and of hospitality."

"Where is that?" they asked.

"Skeonhagan, Maine!" he replied; "kin I sell you a razor strop?"—Artemus Ward.

MASONIC FACT.—Dr. R. G. Scott, Past Grand Master, in an address delivered years ago, made the following statement. It is honorable to the Masonic Institution—and we presume the members of that ancient body will be pleased to read it and see it circulated: From sources of information on which I entirely rely, I state the fact that fifty at least of those who signed the Declaration of Independence were Masons, and the same history informs us that every Major General of the Revolutionary Army was a Mason, save one, and that one was Benedict Arnold.

BRIGHAM'S DILEMMA.—The expulsion from Paradise and fall of Muloch are apparently soon to be re-enacted in Utah if the signs of the times do not err. The United States Government is beginning to assert its right in that State by the appointment of Gentile officials; and Brigham and his people are preparing, it is said, to show fight. Should they be ugly the old story of the Garden of Eden may be once more performed in a modified shape. The times are hard for Brigham, in the midst of his prosperity. Which would be rather part with his wives or his well filled acres?—Sac. Bee.

ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

Just as the bee collects her swarms, from every shrub and flower she draws, what from many a source we draw, we give you the whole as new.

Polygamy is not very fruitful of revenue, whatever it may be in other respects. Utah, with 100,000 inhabitants only pays $30,000 into the United States Treasury this year, whilst Colorado, with 20,000 inhabitants, contributes $106,000.

Paris is beginning to get tired of Russians. A Frenchman (improving on the old remark) recently said, "Scratch the Russian you'll find the Cossack; scratch the Cossack you'll find a bear; scratch the bear you will find the Russian again."

A friend once visiting an unworldly philosopher, whose mind was his kingdom, expressed surprise at the smallness of his apartment. "Why, you have not room to swing a cat!" "My friend," was the serene, unappreciative reply, "I do not want to swing a cat."

John A. Roebuck, a member of the British Parliament, was a couple of weeks since, summoned to the Westminster Police Court for refusing to pay cab-fare. Mr. Roebuck would only pay 2s 6d, while the fare (so said the cabman) was 3s. The magistrates made an order for the 2d, with 5s costs.
